

Editorial

It is very pleasing that many countries are now setting up their own 'Purine Clubs'. A recent meeting in Chieti brought together the Purine Clubs of Italy and Germany with over 150 participants. It was a highly successful meeting and a Report about the meeting from Professors

Francesco Caciagli and Peter Illes follows. We hope other countries will follow their lead.

Professor Geoffrey Burnstock
Editor-in-Chief